WOMEN CANDIDATES FOR HARLAN'S SEAT ON THE SUPREME BENCH

Many people will agree that President Taft might—and probably will—do a whole lot worse than to appoint a woman as a justice of the supreme court, in the late Justice Harlan's place.

Here are two candidates for the place, proposed by the woman suffragists of Washington. On the left is Miss Emma M. Gillett, LL. D., who has practiced law before the supreme court for 10 years. On the right is Mrs. Ellen Spencer Mussey, LL. D., who has practiced in Washington for 20 years and who has been active in securing legislation advantageous to women.

HUNT TO BE DISCHARGED FROM POLICE FORCE

Capt. Nicholas Hunt, formerly police inspector in charge of the loop district, will be discharged from the force.

The order of dismissal will be signed by Mayor Harrison as soon as the law department prepares the papers.

This positive information was given out today by the mayor following the receipt of a defiant letter from the suspended police official, who charged that the mayor was responsible for lax police regulation of gambling in the
